

PITTSBURGH
CITY PAPER

01.26/02.2.05

THE ARTS, ENTERTAINMENT
& NEWS WEEKLY/ISSUE 4

SAT
29

Motorpsychos

>> It doesn't take an ethnomusicology doctoral candidate to guess the rock genres inside which the Motorpsychos live. Think metal. Think punk. And there you go. Which isn't to say that the band's second full-length, Piston Whipped, which will be released tonight at the 31st Street Pub, is entirely free of complexities.

Songs like "Primer" and "Psycho Mauler," for instance, are head-bangingly reminiscent of classic crossover acts like D.R.I. and the Crumbsuckers. And who could possibly resist the sludge-heavy "Fries With That," a winking nod to the comedy-punk of NOFX, during which the 'Psychos thoroughly diss a fast-food wage-slave? I'm lovin' it. DE 10 p.m. 31st St. Pub, 3101 Penn Ave., Strip District. $6. 412-391-8334.